Classic southern Italian flavours of waxy lemon, white flowers & green almonds. A wonderful (dry) all-rounder from the volcanic soils of the south.

Greece, Peloponnesus | Kidonitsa
Under-ripe pineapple & quince with subtle floral character. Crisp, aromatic, delicate & (thankfully) a million miles away from Retsina!
- 2016 San Silvestro, 'Nas-Cëtta' Langhe DOC £6 | £18 | £35
Italy, Piemonte | Nascetta
Unctuous yellow pear, acacia & nut with a rich, textural mid palate & citrus zest. A re-birth for this near extinct variety from the hillside of Novello.

Floral elegance with some pretty, ripe stone fruits. A blend of indigenous varieties given proper care & attention from a star of the region.

A traditionally alpine grape gets some holiday sun on the southern coast. Aromatic lemon balm & verbena with some decent weight on the palate.
- 2017 Blankbottle, 'Moment of Silence' £48
South Africa, Wellington | Viognier, Chenin Blanc & Grenache Blanc
A jaw-droppingly gorgeous wine. Chenin's natural acidity plays in perfect balance to the sweet spice, florals & pretty apricots of Grenache & Viognier.
- 2016 Menti, 'Monte del Cuca' £10 | £30 | £51
Italy, Veneto | Garganega
Texture & grip but still retains plenty of ripe fruit. Love it or loathe it, orange wine is now (deservedly) a valid part of the wine lexicon.

- 2015 La Raia, Riserva Gavi DOC £10 | £30 | £53
Italy, Piemonte | Cortese
Straw, almond & wild flowers on the nose with a broader, more intense, loquat & apricot on the palate.

- 2016 Céline & Frédéric Gueguen, 1er Cru Vaucoupin Chabs AOC £15 | £45 | £80

- 2016 Skerk Venezia Giulia IGT £17 | £51 | £88
Italy, Carso | Malvazija
Stunning aromatics of sandalwood & orange peel with bitter green herb on the palate. Some good grip also from extended skin contact.

VIN DOUX NATUREL

All served in 75ml glass

Oft-overlooked for more fashionable regions, the fortified wines of France's South-West represent incredible value with a remarkable depth of back-vintages still readily available. The combination of fortification alongside a healthy dose of oxygen & slow heat means these wines are practically immortal!

My notes below come from two tastings of more than 40 different vintages from across the region. I've tried to pick out a few favourites to represent the range of styles this wine can offer.

- 1983 Riveyrac Rivesaltes AOC £12
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir/Blanc/Gris & Maccabeu
Super rancio & nut on a crazy intense nose. Sweet orange & fig with roaring acidity, a grapefruit mid-palate & chocolate raisin finish. An insane finish!
- 1973 L'Archiviste Rivesaltes AOC £13
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir/Blanc/Gris & Maccabeu
Nose of lemon balm, orange peel & caramels. Hints of bitter orange & raisin alongside minty eucalypt. Intensely ripe orange by the finish.
- 1962 Domaine La Sobilane Rivesaltes AOC £20
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir
Darker nose with walnut, coffee & fig tones. Tawny-esque at first, fresh citrus & walnut turns to coffee & smoke on the finish with roaring acidity.
- 1952 Domaine La Sobilane Rivesaltes AOC £20
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir
Milk chocolate nose with more caramels & toffee. Luscious sweetness at first but acids keep things from going syrupy. Lots of toasted hazelnut & walnut.
- 1946 Château Mossé Rivesaltes AOC £22
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir/ Gris & Maccabeu
Madeira-like with flashy citrus & walnut on the nose. Mostly Grenache but not sure you could tell at this point! Oxidative, nutty finish goes on for days.
