VIN DOUX NATUREL

All served in 75ml glass

Oft-overlooked for more fashionable regions, the fortified wines of France's South-West represent incredible value with a remarkable depth of back-vintages still readily available. The combination of fortification alongside a healthy dose of oxygen & slow heat means these wines are practically immortal!

My notes below come from two tastings of more than 40 different vintages from across the region. I've tried to pick out a few favourites to represent the range of styles this wine can offer.

- 1983 Riveyrac Rivesaltes AOC £12
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir/Blanc/Gris & Maccabeu
Super rancio & nut on a crazy intense nose. Sweet orange & fig with roaring acidity, a grapefruit mid-palate & chocolate raisin finish. An insane finish!
- 1973 L'Archiviste Rivesaltes AOC £13
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir/Blanc/Gris & Maccabeu
Nose of lemon balm, orange peel & caramels. Hints of bitter orange & raisin alongside minty eucalypt. Intensely ripe orange by the finish.
- 1962 Domaine La Sobilane Rivesaltes AOC £20
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir
Darker nose with walnut, coffee & fig tones. Tawny-esque at first, fresh citrus & walnut turns to coffee & smoke on the finish with roaring acidity.
- 1952 Domaine La Sobilane Rivesaltes AOC £20
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir
Milk chocolate nose with more caramels & toffee. Luscious sweetness at first but acids keep things from going syrupy. Lots of toasted hazelnut & walnut.
- 1946 Château Mossé Rivesaltes AOC £22
France, Languedoc | Grenache Noir/ Gris & Maccabeu
Madeira-like with flashy citrus & walnut on the nose. Mostly Grenache but not sure you could tell at this point! Oxidative, nutty finish goes on for days.
